100 Years of Technology in Education

Our Session Focus

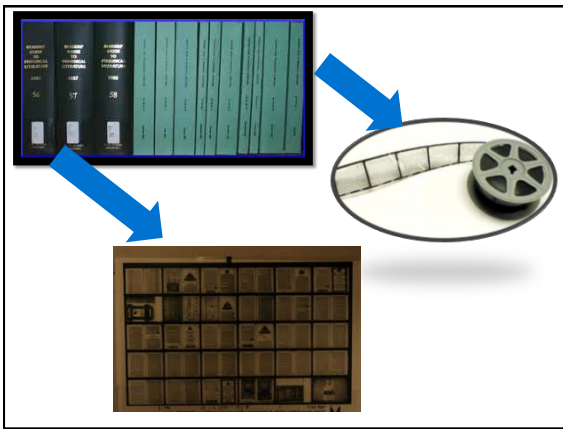

Setting the Context for the 21st Century Classroom.

What the CCSS states about technology for college and career readiness.

Implementing technology school-wide.

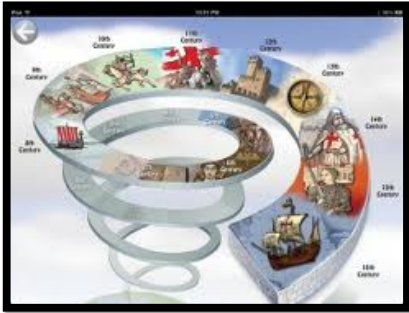

The Digital Age...
The Information Age

Recording Information

A 21st Century Interpretation of Bloom's Taxonomy

Some Questions to Consider...

- When planning a lesson - even when you're planning on incorporating technology - what is the first question you should ask yourself?
- What does Sheryl argue is the power of technology? How will that aid in students' retention of material and their engagement?
- What is the impact of technology on this lesson?
